THE HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE L.NARASIMHA REDDY

W.P.No.18561 of 2007

Date:31.08.2007

Between:

K. Janga Reddy and another.

.. PETITIONERS

AND

The Government of A.P. and another.

..RESPONDENTS

THE HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE L.NARASIMHA REDDY

W.P.No.18561 of 2007

ORDER:

The 1st and 2nd petitioners claim to be the owners of land admeasuring Ac.01.16 guntas, in survey No.262/A, and 3rd petitioner claims to be the owner of land admeasuring Ac. 0.28 guntas in Sy.No.262/Part of Manikonda Jagir Village, Rajendranagar Mandal, Ranga Reddy District. They claim to have approached the second respondent for presentation of deeds of transfer in respect of the said land and complained that the second respondent is refusing to receive the same, without furnishing any specific reasons.

Heard the learned counsel for the petitioners and the learned Government Pleader for Revenue.

The Indian Stamp Act and the Registration Act prescribe the procedure to be followed by the registering authorities, whenever a document is presented for registration. Section 22-A of the Registration Act, which empowered the Government to issue notification, prohibiting registration of any document in relation to any land mentioned in such notification, was held to be unconstitutional. However, altogether a new provision with the same number 22-A has been introduced by the Andhra Pradesh State Legislature through Act 19 of 2007. It came into force with effect from 08.06.2007. It enlists the circumstances under which the registering authority can refuse to admit the document to registration.

The question as to whether the document, that may be presented by the petitioners, attracted by the newly introduced Section 22-A or any other provision, needs to be examined by the second respondent. The occasion to examine the document would arise, if only, it is received. The second respondent cannot refuse to receive the document.

Hence, the writ petition is disposed of, directing that:

(a) the second respondent shall receive the documents that may be presented by the petitioners and examine the same with reference to the relevant provisions of law including Section 22-A of the Registration Act, introduced through Act 19 of 2007; and

(b) in case the documents are otherwise admissible to registration, he shall register them within ten (10) days from the date of its presentation, duly ensuring that it is otherwise in order and if there exist any reasons for not registering the document, he shall communicate the same in writing to the petitioners within that time.

There shall be no order as to costs.

_____

L. NARASIMHA

REDDY, J Dated:31.08.2007

sj

_

_